Chapter 2 by Raven Skymaven

*sally had the same dream over and over every night*

She ran into her room and closed the door and locked it. Her mom wasn't home yet. Neither was her brother. So she closed the curtains. She sat on her bed and admired the book. It was the most beautiful book she had ever seen. It had a purple cover, with gold trim. There were lots of gold and silver swirls all over the cover. It was thick and old looking. It said EVE in silver cursive writing on the cover. As beautiful as it was, it smelled terrible. Like a rotting corpse.

Sally opened the book slowly. The first page was silver. She flipped the page. The next page was white. but it had what looked like blood dripping down it. On the page, it said in sloppv violent

Then on the edge of the page it said in a very small font. It said. I'm not like it's going to

The next page was all white. She flipped again. Blank. She flipped through the book. All the pages were blank! "Stupid book! It's empty!" Then she flipped to the next page. This page had very pretty small writing on it. READ OUT LOUD. "Why?" Sally said. "Oh well." She glanced at the writing and started to read out loud. "Take me to EVE." She looked at the page. That's all it said. "What? What even is this book? Ugh I should just throw it away. It's useless!" She was about to throw the book at the wall, but then she saw something.

The page had turned completely black. She heard whispers coming from the book. "Take her, take her, take her to EVE." Sally was terrified. The whole entire book turned completely black. Then her bedsheets turned black. The walls, floors. Everything in her room was black. Except for her. The whispers became louder. "TAKE HER TO EVE NOW!!!"

Then, Sally was gone.
